- i) The IB shall not use the Company's logo, branding, or other intellectual property in communications, business cards, or emails without the Company's prior written consent.
- j) The IB may only post Company-related promotional material on their website with prior written approval. The IB shall not use or associate the Company with any media or platforms that promote illegal activities, sexually explicit content, violence, discrimination, or unethical behavior, including but not limited to manipulated SEO or keywords.
- k) The IB shall refrain from any actions that may harm the Company's image, brand, or reputation.
- l) The IB acknowledges that all Clients referred to the Company must agree to and sign the applicable Client Agreement, relevant declarations, and supporting documents required under the Company's account opening procedures. The IB recognizes that the Company retains full discretion to accept or reject any referred Client. Furthermore, the IB must disclose any powers, authorizations, or arrangements known to them that could affect the Client's account or relationship with the Company.
- m) The IB is entitled to receive rebates as described and agreed in Annexure I of this Agreement. The Company shall be responsible for calculating rebates payments in accordance with the agreed terms.
- n) The IB agrees to indemnify and hold the Company harmless against any losses, damages, or claims arising from actions or omissions that breach this Agreement.

- o) The IB is fully responsible for any damage caused to the Company due to non-compliance with contractual obligations or regulatory requirements. This includes liability for both deliberate and negligent violations. The IB further acknowledges that the Company shall not be held responsible for any losses incurred by the IB due to breaches of applicable laws or regulations. The IB commits to immediately inform the Company of any changes to their professional or legal status.

18.2. Other Additional terms

- a) The parties expressly agree that this Agreement does not create, and shall not be interpreted as creating, any form of agency, partnership, joint venture, or employer-employee relationship. Notwithstanding this, all clients, whether natural persons or legal entities, regardless of nationality or residence, who open accounts with the Company shall be subject to the terms described in Annexure I of this Agreement.
- b) To be eligible for rebate on any referred client, the Introducing Broker must satisfy all obligations and conditions set out in this Agreement and any applicable Annexes. Furthermore, the IB must ensure they have actively facilitated the introduction between the client and the Company before the account is opened. This is to eliminate any ambiguity regarding the IB's role, particularly in fulfilling all procedural requirements necessary for the Company to enter into an agreement with the referred client.
- c) Clients are required to fund their trading accounts directly from their own bank accounts, accompanied by relevant documentation as approved by the Company. The Company will only return funds to the original remitter, using the same payment method through which the funds were initially deposited.
- d) The Company reserves the exclusive right to accept or reject any client referred by the Introducing Broker and may, at its sole discretion, terminate the business relationship with any client at any time, without obligation to justify its decision.
- e) The Company shall bear no liability for any marketing or promotional activities carried out by the Introducing Broker for their own business purposes. This includes any expenses or fees related to the brokerage services under this Agreement, unless otherwise agreed upon in writing by both parties. All such costs shall be borne solely by the IB.
- f) Subject to the terms of this Agreement, the Introducing Broker may refer prospective clients to the Company's staff to obtain further clarification regarding the Company's financial products. The IB agrees that all brokerage-related activities, whether for introducing, targeting, or referring clients, must be conducted professionally, lawfully, and in accordance with applicable regulations.
- g) The Company shall not be held responsible for the profitability of any client account, and accepts no liability for any losses, costs, or damages suffered by clients as a result of discretionary services, advice, recommendations, or information provided by the Introducing Broker.
- h) A client will only be considered a valid referral from the Introducing Broker once confirmed by the Company

19. Compliance, Supervision and Due Diligence

- 19.1. The Introducer shall diligently supervise the conduct and activities of its employees, officers, agents, and sales personnel to ensure full compliance with the Company's terms and conditions, as well as with all applicable laws and regulations.
- 19.2. The Introducer must immediately notify the Company in writing of any significant claim or complaint made against it, whether such claim originates from a Client or a regulatory authority.
- 19.3. The Introducer acknowledges that it is strictly prohibited from accepting any funds from Clients. Clients must be instructed to make payments directly to the Company through approved channels.
- 19.4. The Introducer is not permitted to conduct discretionary trading on behalf of any Client unless a valid power of attorney, duly signed by the Client and pre-approved by the Company, is in place.
- 19.5. The Introducer may not provide trading advice or recommendations to Clients. For the avoidance of doubt, the Company shall bear no responsibility or liability for any advice, decision, or recommendation given by the Introducer. Furthermore, the Introducer agrees to indemnify and hold the Company harmless from any losses, claims, or liabilities arising from advice, recommendations, negligence, or defaults by the Introducer in connection with services offered to Clients.

20. Confidentiality

The Introducing Broker (IB) agrees to maintain strict confidentiality and shall not disclose any material information received during the course of their business relationship with Landmark, either during the term of the Agreement or after its termination, without prior written consent from Landmark. This includes, but is not limited to, client information, trade secrets, proprietary techniques, operational processes, business strategies, and future plans.

21. Limitation of Liability and Indemnification

- 21.1. The Company shall not be liable to the Introducer under any legal theory, including contract, negligence, tort, strict liability, or otherwise, for any indirect, incidental, consequential, special, or exemplary damages, including but not limited to loss of profits, revenue, business, or goodwill, even if the Company was advised of the possibility of such damages. Furthermore, regardless of any provision to the contrary in this Agreement, the Company's total cumulative liability to the Introducer shall not exceed the total rebate fees actually paid to the Introducer under this Agreement.
- 21.2. The Company makes no express or implied warranties or representations regarding its services, website, or any products or services offered. All implied warranties, including merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, and non-infringement, are expressly disclaimed. The Company does not guarantee that its website (www.Landmarkmarkets.com) will operate without interruption or error and bears no liability for any consequences arising from such interruptions or technical errors.
- 21.3. The Introducer agrees to fully indemnify the Company on demand for any and all liabilities, claims, damages, expenses, and costs, whether direct or indirect, that arise from the Introducer's actions, omissions, or failure to comply with their obligations under this Agreement. This includes any issues related to Clients introduced by the Introducer, as well as any failure to provide required authorizations requested by the Company.

- 21.4. Except where explicitly stated otherwise in this Agreement, the Company shall not be liable for any direct or indirect consequential losses, including but not limited to loss of profits, business opportunities, penalties, expenses, or damages suffered by the Introducer in connection with this Agreement.
- 21.5. Subject to the terms herein, the Introducer agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Company, including its shareholders, officers, directors, employees, agents, and representatives, from any and all claims, liabilities, damages, expenses, penalties, settlements, or legal costs, including those arising from regulatory actions. This applies to any act, omission, or conduct by the Introducer or its representatives in connection with Clients introduced to the Company, especially where such losses are linked to a breach of the terms of this Agreement.

22. Miscellaneous

- 22.1. This Agreement, together with its Annexures, constitutes the entire understanding between the parties and supersedes all prior agreements, arrangements, and understandings, whether oral or written, between them. Neither party has relied on any statements or representations other than those expressly set forth in this Agreement. Any amendments or supplements must be made in writing and signed by both parties.
- 22.2. The failure of either party to enforce any provision of this Agreement at any time shall not be construed as a waiver of that party's right to enforce it at a later time. No waiver of any term, condition, or breach under this Agreement shall be valid unless it is provided in writing. A waiver of any specific provision shall not constitute a continuing waiver or a waiver of any other provision or subsequent breach.
- 22.3. The Introducing Broker may not assign, delegate, or transfer this Agreement or any of its rights or obligations, whether in whole or in part, without prior written consent from the Company.
- 22.4. If any provision of this Agreement is found to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable by a court or regulatory authority, the remaining provisions shall remain fully effective. The parties agree to work in good faith to replace any such invalid provision with a valid and enforceable alternative that most closely reflects the original intent and purpose.
- 22.5. This Agreement shall apply globally, except in jurisdictions or territories where the execution or performance of this Agreement or the Company's business operations is prohibited by law, as described in the Company's terms and conditions.

23. Assignment

The Company reserves the right to assign its rights or delegate its obligations under this Agreement to any third party without prior notice to the Introducing Broker (IB). The IB hereby grants the Company the authority to transfer this Agreement to any successor entity or organization. Conversely, the IB is not permitted to assign or transfer any of its rights or responsibilities under this Agreement to any third party without the prior written consent of the Company.

24. Headings

The paragraph headings in this IB Agreement are inserted for information purposes only and are not intended to limit the meaning of any of the Terms.

25. Communication and Notices

- 25.1. All formal communication with Landmark must be conducted exclusively via the Company's official email domain (Landmarkmarkets.com). Any correspondence conducted through channels outside this domain shall be deemed unauthorized and non-binding. Landmark shall bear no responsibility for any statements, commitments, or agreements made via unofficial or unauthorized communication channels.
- 25.2. Landmark will initiate communication solely through its official email domain. The Company disclaims all liability for any information, representations, or agreements conveyed through any other means or platforms not associated with its official domain.
- 25.3. Notices or other official communications from Landmark may be sent to the Introducing Broker via their registered email address or physical address as provided in the IB application. Any such communication shall be deemed valid and delivered by Landmark regardless of whether it is received or acknowledged by the IB.

26. Force majeure

The Introducing Broker (IB) acknowledges and agrees that Landmark shall not be held liable for any losses, damages, or costs resulting from force majeure events, i.e., events or circumstances beyond Landmark's reasonable control. These may include, but are not limited to:

government restrictions, exchange or market rulings, trading suspensions or delays, war, civil unrest, natural disasters (such as earthquakes), strikes, equipment malfunctions, communication or system failures, unauthorized access, data breaches, theft, or any technical or operational issue that prevents either the IB or a referred Client from placing, modifying, or executing an order, or that prevents Company from processing or responding to online instructions.

Such events shall be determined solely at Company's discretion and shall not give rise to any claim against the Company for non-performance or delays in fulfilling its obligations.

27. Governing law and Jurisdiction

- 27.1. Without limiting any rights or remedies available to Company, any disputes, claims, actions, demands, or legal proceedings arising directly or indirectly from or in connection with this IB Agreement shall be governed by the laws of Saint Vincent and the Grenadines, which shall be the governing law of this Agreement.

- 27.2. All such matters shall be resolved exclusively in Saint Vincent and the Grenadines, at the sole discretion of the Company. This applies regardless of any conflict-of-law principles or private international law rules that might otherwise apply another jurisdiction's laws. If any provision of this Agreement is found to be invalid or unenforceable under Saint Vincent and the Grenadines law, the remaining provisions shall remain fully effective unless the invalidated term is deemed essential to the overall purpose of the Agreement, in which case the Agreement may be terminated.
- 27.3. The Introducer expressly consents to and submits to the jurisdiction of the courts located in Saint Vincent and the Grenadines and waives any objection to the jurisdiction or venue of such courts, including any claim that the forum is inconvenient or improper.
- 27.4. The Introducer agrees that no legal action or claim arising out of or related to this Agreement may be brought more than six (6) months after the cause of action has occurred, regardless of the form of the action.

28. Entire IB Agreement

This Agreement, together with any applicable Annexures attached hereto, constitutes the entire Introducing Broker (IB) Agreement between the Company and the Introducer. The Company makes no representations, warranties, or promises other than those explicitly stated within the terms of this Agreement.

29. Counterparts

This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts each of which will be deemed to be an original, but all of which when taken together will constitute one and the same instrument.
